This issue of the NEXT IAS Current Affairs Magazine has comprehensive coverage of all the topics from current affairs neatly categorized into major sections like Economy, International Issues, Polity & Governance, and so on.

Cover Story articles in our magazine provide macro coverage of the entire syllabus judiciously divided into different themes. It intends to build conceptual understanding of aspirants by making it all-encompassing, incorporating different views and reasoned arguments in favour of or against a position, idea or development relevant for UPSC-CSE. They are typically handled by subject-area experts who can bring in-depth knowledge to a topic.
